Stellar Cyber 6.6.0s is now live! Discover all the updates in the release notes!

Notifications Overview

The topics in this section help you understand how to configure system notifications in the System Action Center and work with them in the Notification Center. Notifications can help alert you to important system conditions related to connector performance, sensor activities, license enforcement, and license usage in real time.

See the following sections for details:

© 2026 Stellar Cyber . All rights reserved.